INTRODUCTION

The Journal of Governmental & Nonprofit Accounting (JOGNA) is the academic journal of the American Accounting Association’s Government and Nonprofit Section. JOGNA’s objectives are to promote, publish, and build the community of those conducting research in governmental and nonprofit accounting, and to create new knowledge in this field.

To this end, the role of the editorial board is to identify promising manuscripts and to advise and support authors during the submission process.

Appropriate topics for the journal include, but are not limited to:
• Financial reporting by governmental and nonprofit organizations
• Governance practices in governmental and nonprofit organizations
• Audit markets for governmental and nonprofit organizations
• Financing governmental and nonprofit enterprises
• Budgeting and financial management in governmental and nonprofit organizations
• Evaluating charitable organizations
• Performance audits
• State oversight of local governments
• The role of accounting in political markets
• The use of accounting information in markets for philanthropic resources
• Financial and nonfinancial performance metrics in governmental and nonprofit organizations
• Compensation in public sector and nonprofit organizations
• Regulation of reporting requirements for governmental and nonprofit organizations
• Federal Accounting Standards
• Evaluating the public policy objectives, consequences, and performance of governmental and nonprofit organizations
• Government Auditing Standards
• Government Cost Accounting Standards and the CASB

Appropriate methodologies include, but are not limited to:
• Empirical studies using archival data
• Laboratory studies
• Theory-based analysis
• Case studies
• Ethnography and field research
• Accounting history
