Editorial Content

Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD) is a multidisciplinary professional journal devoted to meeting the information needs of professionals and families who seek effective ways to help people with intellectual disabilities. We report on new teaching methods, clinical breakthroughs, administrative tools, program evaluations, service utilization studies, community surveys, training, and case studies. IDD is a peer-reviewed publication.

Market Coverage

Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities is for researchers, clinicians, academics, students, and other professionals in intellectual disabilities and developmental disabilities.

Disclaimer

Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities reserves the right to accept materials and require publication prepayment. This journal does not accept advertising for credit/debit cards, insurance, or travel.

The advertiser agrees to assume all liability for content of ads printed and must be fully authorized for use of the ad's content. In consideration of the publication of advertisements, the advertiser will indemnify and hold the publisher harmless from any loss or expense arising out of an advertisement.

Advertisers will be billed for any modifications or file manipulation that needs to be done to meet print requirements.

Allen Press, Inc. assumes no financial responsibility for any error or omission occurring in the publication of an advertisement if the electronic file does not meet our published standards and/or a press proof is not supplied.

All claims for errors in advertisements must be made in writing and received within ten days of the invoice date and will be considered only for the first insertion of the advertisement containing the error. An error, which does not materially affect the value or content of an advertisement, will not qualify for a credit, nor will any credit be allowed if the customer has seen and approved proof, or a proof was not supplied.
