Situated in the valley of the river Fulda, a Baroque city crowned by churches amongst the foothills of Rhön and Vogelsberg.

June 11th

Wurzburg.

Overnight and Sightseeing.

This old Franconian Capital lies amongst the principle vineyards in Bavaria. The old town has many buildings erected by the Prince Bishops.

June 12th.

Rothenberg.

Overnight and Sightseeing.

An old Franconian Imperial city picturesquely situated on the bank of the Tauber. It has surrounding walls and towers virtually untouched since 1631. A beautiful medieval city.

Nördlingen.

Luncheon and Sightseeing.

One of three Imperial cities, in the town centre stands St. George's Church encircled by old houses, two outer rings of 16th C. and 17th C. houses.

June 13th.

Augsburg.

Overnight and Sightseeing.
Museum visit (2 hours).

Founded by the Romans as a military camp in 15 B.C. later becoming a great trading centre. Today a very prosperous city with an exciting cultural life. The birthplace of Mozart's father.

June 14th.

Munich.

Overnight and Sightseeing.
Museum visit.

One of the worlds most impressive and hospitable cities. The art museums alone would make J.P. Getty green with envy. The restaurants and stores are incomparable.

Göttingen, in the Leine Valley at the foot of the Hainberg, is one of the German University towns with the richest heritage of tradition. Many Nobel Prize winners have studied or taught here, and the headquarters of the Max Planck Society came here in 1945. Göttingen is noted as a city for theatre, and the old city is enclosed within a line of walls.
