

Table S1. Stigma Measures and Stigma Types

Name of measure	Number of items	Types of stigma measured	Stigma definitions
Developed own/new (Earnshaw and Quinn ¹²)	32	Internalized, experienced, and anticipated stigma	Experienced stigma: perceived discrimination, stereotyping, or prejudice from others Anticipated stigma: expectation or fear of experiencing discrimination, stereotyping, or prejudice from others in future Internalized stigma: recognition, acceptance, and adoption of others' negative attitudes and beliefs toward one's own stigmatized identity
Scambler and Hopkins ⁹	Qualitative	Felt and enacted stigma	Enacted stigma: discriminatory attitudes or behaviors an individual may face from others because of their stigmatized condition Felt stigma: fear of facing discrimination from others in future and internalized sense of shame associated with having a quality others deem inferior
SSCI-24, SSCI-8 ^{28,44*}	24 or 8	Enacted/externalized stigma, internalized/self-stigma	Enacted/externalized stigma: acts of discrimination and/or exclusion an individual may face from others Internalized/self-stigma: shame surrounding one's own stigmatized identity and fears of facing discrimination in future
Cook's Stigma Scales ^{21*}	36 or 9 (9 excludes internalized)	Anticipated, isolation, internalized stigma	Internalized stigma: negative feelings toward one's own disease Anticipated stigma: sense that an individual was or would be stigmatized Isolation stigma: An individual's sense of exclusion and ostracism because of their disease
RSS-MS, MS-Related Stigma Scale ^{23,40*}	9	Internalized and perceived stigma (but only as general score)	Internalized stigma: devaluing of one's own worth and/or feeling ashamed/responsible for one's illness (Eldridge-Smith²³); directing other people's negative attitudes or beliefs about people with stigmatized identity against oneself (Valvano et al⁴⁰) Perceived stigma: no definition

Downloaded from <http://ireid.ian.alexpress.com/jmscaricite-supplement/500740/pdf/1537-2073-26-3-125-s1> by guest on 12 July 2024

ISS discrimination dimension ^{30*}	13	Perceived discrimination	A person's perceptions of negative reactions, hostility, or discrimination from others toward their illness
Neuro-QOL (for adults) ^{47,50*+}	CAT form: variable number out of 24 items; short form: 8	Stigma	Experienced negativity, prejudice, and discrimination from self or others because of an individual's disease-related differences
Feelings of stigmatization score ^{29*}	4	Feelings of stigmatization	Feeling stigmatized as result of having MS
Kalantari et al ¹⁹ stigma scale*	20	Perceived stigma	No clear definition

CAT, computer adaptive testing; ISS, Internalized Stigma Scale; MS, multiple sclerosis; Neuro-QOL, Quality of Life in Neurological Disorders; RSS, Reese Stigma Scale; SSCI, Stigma Scales for Chronic Illness.

* Used for people with MS.

+ Neuro-QOL items overlap with SSCI items.